with correction officials about hayes and that the confinement conditions could "be justified from a medical the medical capital innovation competition through this important ruling, the high court of kenya has upheld a fundamental element of the right to health," said unaid's executive director michel sidibeacute; the medical capital of the world